It is becoming a nuisance to the other inmates for me to enter into their cells while they are sleeping using their Sinks.

I am trying to stay out of trouble, but it's a burden for me to get up out of my own room to go to someone else's room just to get water when I have a sink that doesn't work because the administration refuse to fix it. And the minute I get into a fight with someone about using the sink while they are sleeping, the administration will be ready to take me to Court.

I have been in this cell 3 months without being able to use my own sink and that is pitiful.

WHEREFORE, this grievant seeks to have his sink fixed immediately to prevent further problems from other inmates.

Respectfully Submitte

James Huff

Cont.

Shave, he was told that he was not allowed to have one, due to lock-down status. According to the provisions set forth in Wolff v. McDonnell, 418 U.S. 539, 94 S. Ct. 2963 (1974). That states in pertinent part, "that a pre-trial or convicted felon does not relinquish their rights to the 14th Amendment nor the Equal Protection of the laws Clause."

Therefore, keeping my hair-cut and shave up to par is guaranteed by the United States Constitution, along with the Policy, procedures and directives that govern the Barber Court Jail.

WHEREFORE, this grievant would demand that this violation of his Constitutional Rights be corrected immediately.

Respectfully Submitted,

James Griffin

| State of Alabama Unified Judicial System Form C-81 11/91 | ADVICE OF RIGHTS ON INITIAL APPEARANCE BEFORE JUDGE OR MAGISTRATE (Felony) | Case Number |
|---|--|-------------|

IN THE District COURT OF Barbour, ALABAMA
 (Circuit, District, or Municipal) (Name of County or Municipality)

☐ STATE OF ALABAMA
☐ MUNICIPALITY OF STATE v. James B. Griffith
 Defendant

This is a first appearance hearing. You are charged with committing the offense(s) of Assault 1st
Assault 2nd / Disturbing the Peace / Building In this court in violation of §13A-6-20 / §13A-6-21 / §13A-11-61. The primary purpose of this hearing is to ensure that you know and understand the charge or charges against you. At this hearing, there will be no determination of guilt or innocence of the crime charged, but only a determination that you know and understand the charges against you. If you are before the court on a complaint following a warrantless arrest, the judge or magistrate will determine whether there is probable cause for the charge against you.

In addition, the purpose of this hearing is to determine whether bail should be set in your case; or, if it has been already set, if it should remain the same, be raised, be lowered, or whether you should be released upon your personal recognizance (that is, your promise to appear for future court proceedings) or released in the custody of some responsible person. In order to make this determination, it will be necessary for the judge or magistrate to ask you some questions concerning your ties to the community.

You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. You have a right to have your own attorney and will be given an opportunity to retain an attorney. If you are unable to afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you by the court if you qualify for such representation. It will be necessary for you to complete an indigency questionnaire under oath in order for the court to make this determination.

You have a right to talk with your attorney, family, or friends and, if necessary, reasonable means will be provided in order to enable you to do so. You have the right to remain silent. Anything that you say may be used against you.

Because you are charged with a felony, you are entitled to demand a preliminary hearing before a judge or magistrate to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to establish that you probably committed the offense or offenses with which you are charged. You must make this demand with thirty (30) days of the date of arrest. If a hearing is demanded and conducted, and if, at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the judge finds that sufficient evidence has been shown to establish that you probably committed the offense or offenses with which you are charged, the judge will then bind you over for further action by a grand jury. If, on the other hand, the judge finds that the evidence is insufficient to establish that you probably committed the crime or crimes charged, then the judge will dismiss the charge and discharge you from further custody or trial obligations subject to the right of the prosecution to reinstate the charges against you at a later time.

If you are released from custody (whether personal recognizance or otherwise), you must:

- 1) Appear to answer and submit to all orders and process of the court having jurisdiction in the case.
- 2) Refrain from committing any criminal offense.
- 3) Not depart from the State of Alabama without the leave of the court having jurisdiction of this case.
- 4) Promptly notify the court of any change of address or the phone number.
- 5) Other conditions: _____

The provisions of the Release Order may be revoked or modified by the court for cause. The Release Order and appearance bond executed in compliance with it will continue in force and effect until the dismissal, acquittal, or conviction on the charges, unless sooner revoked or modified by the court. Upon report of a violation of any of the above conditions, a warrant for your arrest will be issued.

10-28-05 Date Charles H. Hart Judge/Magistrate

I have read or have been advised of the matters herein set forth. I understand the explanation of procedures, the information given to me at the initial court appearance. I understand the conditions of my release and the penalties applicable in the event that I violate any conditions imposed herein. I also understand that failure to appear as required may subject me to additional charges in the revocation of release.
